

First Unitarian Universalist Church of Nashville
Policy and Procedures

Section: Facilities Utilization

Adopted: July 1996

Revised: June 2006

Cancelled: August 2015

POLICY REGARDING PLACEMENT OF MATERIALS ON CORRIDOR WALLS

It is henceforth the policy of the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Nashville that absolutely no posters, paintings, notices, papers, pictures, etc. be mounted, taped, tacked, or otherwise placed on any corridor walls. Such items may be placed only on the bulletin boards in coordination with the Operations Cluster.

In addition, all wall hangings (art) will be placed, repaired, and removed from the church buildings in coordination with the Operations Cluster.

Effective August 2015, The Policy Regarding Placement of Materials on Corridor Walls is cancelled; refer instead to the Responsibilities for Maintaining Physical Areas of the Campus Policy.
